

I agree with the above RM-10806. The reason being that I have taught morse code classes for many years and have seen the sense of accomplishment in students that makes for a much more responsible attitude when they earn their license.